Isaiah 53:4-6 It was our weaknesses (Jesus) carried; it was our sorrows that weighed Him down. And we thought His troubles were a punishment from God, a punishment for His own sins! But He was pierced for our rebellion, crushed for our sins. He was beaten so we could be whole. He was whipped so we could be healed. All of us, like sheep, have strayed away. We have left God's paths to follow our own. Yet the Lord laid on Him the sins of us all.

Jeremiah 1:12 Jehovah says, "I watch over My Word to perform it."

Psalms 107:20 God sent His Word and healed them, and delivered them from their destructions.

Isaiah 55:11 God says, "So shall My Word be, which goes forth out of My mouth; it shall not return to Me void, but it shall accomplish what I please, and it shall certainly do what I sent it to do."

Psalms 89:35 God says, "I have sworn an oath to (you), and in My holiness I cannot lie."

John 15:7 (Jesus said), "If you remain in Me and My Words remain in you, you may ask for anything you want, and it will be granted!"

Mark 11:22-25 Jesus answered, "Have faith in God. I tell you the truth, you can say to this mountain, 'Go, fall into the sea.' And if you have no doubt in your mind and believe that what you say will happen, God will do it for you. So I tell you to believe that you have received the things you ask for in prayer, and God will give them to you. When you are praying, if you are angry with someone, forgive him so that your Father in heaven will also forgive your sins."

Luke 9:1 Jesus called the twelve apostles together and gave them power and authority over all demons and the ability to heal sicknesses.

Romans 10:8-10 The Word is near you, even in your mouth and in your heart; that is, the Word of Faith which we proclaim: if you confess with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God has raised Him from the dead, you will be saved. For with the heart one believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.

Psalms 138:2 I praise Your name for Your unfailing love and faithfulness; for Your promises are backed by all the honor of Your name.

2 Corinthians 3:17 The Lord is the Spirit, and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is freedom.

Romans 15:13 I pray that God, the source of hope, will fill you completely with joy and peace because you trust in Him. Then you will overflow with confident hope through the power of the Holy Spirit.

2 Corinthians 1:20 For all of God's promises are "Yes and Amen" through Christ Jesus, for God's glory.

Matthew 21:22 Whatever things you ask in prayer, believing, you will receive.

Romans 4:18-25 Even when there was no reason for hope, Abraham kept hoping—believing that he would become the father of many nations. For God had said to him, "That's how many descendants you will have!" And Abraham's faith did not weaken, even though, at about 100 years of age, he figured his body was as good as dead—and so was Sarah's womb. Abraham never wavered in believing God's promise. In fact, his faith grew stronger, and in this he brought glory to God. He was fully convinced that God is able to do whatever He promises. And because of Abraham's faith, God counted him as righteous. And when God counted him as righteous, it wasn't just for Abraham's benefit. It was recorded for our benefit, too, assuring us that God will also count us as righteous if we believe in Him, the one who raised Jesus our Lord from the dead. He was handed over to die because of our sins, and He was raised to life to make us right with God.
